To make Glazing for Ham &c
Take as much good brown Gravy, as you think proper, boil it gradually, untill it becomes so thick, that it may be applied with a Brush.

Sweet Biscuit.

Take a Pint of good Cream, 4 eggs, well beaten, a little Lemon Peel, chopped fine, & Sugar to the Taste: Mix the above together, & fry them, in the same manner, as a Savoury Biscuits.
Serve it up with Sweetmeats.

Stomach Cream.

1 Pint of Cream, & a Stick of Cinamon, boiled together a Quarter of an Hour,
1/2 of Singsaps, with what Sugar is

² necessary, and when nearly cold, pour it over Sweetmeats.

Horseradish Sauce.

Take a large Stick of Horseradish, grate it fine through a Grater, add to it, a Tablespoonful of made Mustard, & a Dessert Spoonful of moist Sugar.
Then add vinegar sufficient to make it the consistence of made mustard.
a little Cream improves it very much.

To make Gingerbread. W. R. Ruffin.

Put $\frac{1}{2}$ lb of butter, into 1 lb. & $\frac{1}{2}$ of flour, very well, $\frac{1}{2}$ lb of brown Sugar, 1 oz of Ginger & $\frac{1}{2}$ a Nutmeg, mix these up with $\frac{1}{2}$ lb of Treacle, warmed with a little Cream, mix all well together, roll, & bake on buttered Tins.

Mocha Ice.

Half an-oz of Sugar, dissolved in as little water as possible; Take the quantity of new milk, which will fill y^e mould & put it into a basin, then put it into a Hair sieve: Two table spoonfuls of Red Currant Jelly, Two of Raspberry Jam,
 & the same of Strawberry Jam. Place your Mould below the sieve, & then pour slowly in, the milk, & the Sugar.
 Keep stirring it, till all runs through.
 the sieve into the Mould, but the seeds.
 Let it stand 6 or 8 hours, & then turn it out, as you do a mould of Jelly.

 Cheese Pudding. Miss E. Read.

$\frac{1}{2}$ a lb of Cheese grated 2 Spoonfuls of Cream 2 Eggs, & 1 oz of Butter. butter the Pan, & bake it $\frac{1}{4}$ of an hour.

4 To preserve Brandy Cherries Get your Mistle Cherries, when fully ripe, cut the stalks, so as to leave them $\frac{1}{2}$ an Inch long: Put them into Glass Jars, & between every layer of fruit, put a layer of fine Sugar, beat very fine, till the Jar are three parts full, then fill them up with Brandy: Cover them close up, & set the Bottles in the Sun, & Shake them once or twice a day.

Ginger Biscuits Miss H. Read
Five eggs, to be beaten with $\frac{3}{4}$ lb of finely powdered Sugar, for $\frac{1}{2}$ hour. Then add 1 lb of flour, 1 oz of the best ground Ginger, & a little grated Lemon Peel, if approved. Stir the whole together, & drop it roughly on Tins. Bake in a very cool Oven.

Apple-Soufflet. Cudding.

Take & quarter 4 large Apples, boil them tender, with the rind of a Lemon, in so little water, that when done, none may remain. Beat them fine in a Mortar; add the crumb of a small Roll; 4 ozs of butter rolled, the yolks of 5 eggs, & the Whites of Three, the juice of $\frac{1}{2}$ a Lemon, & Sugar to the taste, beat them all together, & lay them in a Dish, with Sugar to turn out.

To make Easley Sugar

To 1 lb of loaf Sugar, add $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of Water, 2 Tablespoonfuls of Vinegar, & 2 of distilled Vinegar, & 20 Drops of Essence of Lemon. The Vinegar is added as soon as it boils. For common Sugar, $\frac{1}{4}$ pint of Water is sufficient.

6

Lemon Cheesecakes.

Wetherton.

To $\frac{1}{4}$ lb of butter, add $\frac{3}{4}$ lb of Lump Sugar broken, 6 eggs, the grated rind of 2 Lemons & the juice of 3: Put all these into a Pan, over a slow fire, gently stirring it till it is as thick as good cream: Then pour it into jars, cover them with paper, the same as Sweetmeats. Bake the Paste in Water, Tin, before you put in the above, & then let them just brown.

To preserve Wine-sours.

First sort your wine-sours, & take the worst of them, & put them into a jar, which put into a jar of boiling water. & let it remain, untill all the juice comes from them, then strain it through a hair sieve, to each pound of Wine-sours, put 1 lb of Loaf Sugar, break it into lumps, & wet it in the juice,

Let it stand till the next day, & then put it into y^e preserving Pan, & like it. Stewed till the sugar is melted. Then put in y^e Wine sauce, & let them boil a little while very gently. turning them over, then take them out, & let them stand till the next day, but be very particular, to turn them several times after you set them by. The next day, boil them again, when they are enough, take them out, one by one, into a basin, then boil the Syrup, & scum it very well, pour it over y^e Wine sauce, & the next day, put them into Pots.

Dissect. Puddings

Take the weight of 2 Eggs in butter, & the same of white sugar & flour. Beat the butter to a cream. add the yolks of 2 eggs, well beaten, mix them well together, then put in the flour, & beat them thoroughly. Butter small cups & $\frac{1}{2}$ fill them. 20 minutes will bake them, in a quick oven.

Spanish Puffs.

Wth Edmunds.

The rind of a Lemon, a little cinnamon, & lump sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of thin cream. Let it boil a little, add $\frac{1}{4}$ lb of butter; let it boil again, then put in as much flour, as will make it a stiff Paste. Keep it on the fire, till it is taken out of the Pan, beat it a little time, holding the pan in cold water, till nearly cold, then add 1 egg, & the yolks of 3. Keep beating them till cold, then make them the shape of an Egg. Bake them in a slow oven, till they become a nice brown. When cold, fill them with Macestimated.

Fish Sauce.

Mentha.

To a pint of good cream, add 2 Spoonfuls of Essence of Anchovies, 2 of Mushroom Catnap, 2 of Walnut, & a little Cayenne Pipped, 2 ozs of butter rolled in flour. Boil it for 3 minutes

9

Apple Marmalade.

W. Edmunds.

Take 1 lb of lump sugar, put to it $\frac{1}{4}$ pint of water, let it boil for some time, then add 2 pounds of apples pared, & covered with Lemon Juice, boil all together, till it becomes very stiff. Then put it into moulds, the next day, tie it down with Brandy papers, & keep it for use. I made in winter, the Yorkshire Greening, ^{are the best.}

Lemon Pudding

W. Scott.

Take $\frac{1}{2}$ a pint of Cream, put to it 2 ozs of butter, after the cream has boiled, then stir the butter & cream together: when cold, add 3 eggs, with $\frac{1}{2}$ the whites, & a good sized table spoonful of fine flour, with sugar to your taste. Bake them in small Souffles, a light brown.

To make Buns.

Take 3 lbs of flour, 4 ozs of butter, 1 quart of Milk, 2 eggs, sugar to your taste, & a few currants, or hawthorn seeds, Bake in a slow oven, a table spoonfull of yeast.

Gloucester Jelly.

2 ozs of Sago, 2 ozs of Rice, 2 ozs of Pearl Barley,
2 ozs of Candied Orange, root, & 2 ozs of Kingclaf.

These ingredients to be simmered in 3 pints of water, till reduced to 2 pints. The Kingclaf must be tied up in a thin bag, & pressed out from the ingredients. When made, 2 table-spoons of the Jelly, dissolved in a Tea cup full of warm milk, & taken every morning an hour before rising, & again about 11 o'clock.

Arrowroot Cakes.

Dr. Scott.

Take of Arrow-root, powdered Sugar, & butter, of each $\frac{1}{2}$ lb, 5 eggs; work the butter to a good cream, then add the yolks of the Eggs, the Sugar, & Arrow-root, lastly, the whites of the Eggs.
Beat them to a strong froth, add a little grated Lemon-peel, & bake them in Milk Tins.

Orange Jelly.

Procter's.

Take 2 quarts of Spring Water, put a lb of Hartshorn Shavings, & let it boil, until it is reduced to 1 quart. Then pour it clean off, & let it stand till cold. Take the rind of 3 Oranges, pared very thin, & the juice of 10. Let them stand overnight, in $\frac{1}{2}$ a pint of Spring water. Then strain through a fine hair sieve, melt the Jelly, & pour the Orange Siquor to it. Sweeten it to $\frac{1}{2}$ taste, with Double Refined Sugar, & put to it a Blade or 2 of mace, 4 or 5 Cloves, $\frac{1}{2}$ a small Nutmeg, & the rind of 1 Lemon. Beat the white of 5 or 6 eggs, to a froth, mix it well with $\frac{1}{2}$ Jelly, & let it run a clear fine. Boil it 3 or 4 minutes, run it through $\frac{1}{2}$ Jelly bag, several times, but take care not to shake it, when you pour it into $\frac{1}{2}$ bag.

Get up fruit when quite dry, & pickle them as whole as you can. Then put them into dry bottles, with 5 oys of powdered lump sugar. Cork them up tight, & tie them down with rag, then pack them in a Pot with Sausage & water up to the neck of the bottle, just before the water begins to boil, put the fire out, & let the bottles remain, till cold. In a day or two, take the rags off, & loosen the corks.

To make Gooseberry cakes. Miss E. Reed.

Take 3 quarts of Gooseberries, when fully ripe, Put them in a stew pan, with a little water, when soft, rub them through a Hair sieve, to 1 lb of pulp, add 1 lb of sugar, sifted & dried, & the white of one egg. Beat them till quite stiff, then drop them on a flayed tin to dry. When quite dry, put them into a box, & they will keep a year.

Green Gooseberry Cakes.

Scald the green Gooseberries, & Strain the pulp through a sieve. To 1 lb of the pulp, add 1 lb of fine loaf sugar sifted, & the whites of 2 eggs, beat all together for an hour, with a large wooden spoon till quite light. Then drop them on paper, & dry them in the sun. Strawberry, & Raspberry cakes, are made in the same manner.

Very good recipe for Biscuits. (Miss E. Reed.)

To 1 lb of flour, put $\frac{1}{2}$ oz of butter, mix them very well together. Put $\frac{1}{2}$ oz of butter, in a small Saucepan of new Milk, & boil it. Put it into the bason, with the flour, & work it a long time. Then lay it between 2 plates, for an hour or two. Roll them out very thin, cut them, & prick them, after which bake them.

Black Currant Lozenges. Mary.

Take & melt off currants on the fire, after that, force them through a Strainer, & add to every pint of juice, 2 ozs of Loaf sugar. Boil them ^{$\frac{3}{4}$ of an hour} & dry them on Lin Sheets.

Take $\frac{1}{2}$ lb of the finest flour, to 3 oys of butter, add 1 egg, yolk, & white, to two large table ^{spoons} of yeast. Take a pint of new milk, put to it the butter, & set it on a stove, till the butter is melted, then mix it up with the flour, into a light paste, after which add the yeast, & the egg, & set it to rise for an hour. Bake it in a moderately quick oven.

To make a French Pancake. Miss H. Read.

To one Spoonful of flour, add $\frac{1}{2}$ a one of Orange Marmalade, to these, put the yolks of 3 Eggs, well beaten. Beat all together. Then add $\frac{1}{2}$ a pint of cream, & sugar to the taste. The whites of the Eggs must be beaten to a froth, & added to the batter. Brown a piece of butter in a frying pan lightly, then pour in the batter, & brown the top, with a salamander. It must be made in a Copper Omelet Pan.

Apple Jelly.

W. Edwards.

The apples should be gathered; when fully grown (it is immaterial what sort they are) cut them into quarters, without paring them, to about a peck of Apples, put one gallon of water to them & boil them for two hours; they should not boil very fast; strain the water from the Apples, & put it by, till the next day, then strain it through a piece of Muslin, into a preserving pan, & to each quart, put 1 lb. & 1/2 of lump Sugar. Put it on the stove to boil quick, for 3/4 of an hour. Take off the Scum. & then put it into moulds or Glasses. The next day, tie them down, the same as Currant Jelly, when it is boiling, if you do not find it a pretty pink color, put a little of the juice of Beetroots, & a little Lemon-peel, cut in lengths, like straws, is an improvement, & looks pretty in the Jelly.

16 To make Raspberry Vinegar. Miss E. Peab.
Take 1 lb of Raspberries, to a pint of white wine
Vinegar, Put it into a well glazed earthen Pan, & set it in a cool place for 1 day & night,
Then strain it through a hair sieve, but do not press it too close: Then add 1 lb & $\frac{3}{4}$ of Double Refined Sugar, melt it over a slow fire, & only let it just boil, then stir it till cold.

Miss E. Peab.

Rice Soufflet.

1 Tea cup full of Rice, well washed, boil it in some new Milk, till soft, then add 1 oz of Butter, the yolk of 3 eggs, & lemon peel to g. taste. Beat the whites of 3 eggs, give it a stir, & lay it on a Dish. Sift Sugar over it, & brown it with a Salamander.

For preserving Eggs for winter use.

Put $\frac{1}{2}$ a lb of Lime to 1 gallon of Water

Cover the bottom of the glass with Macaroons steeped in white wine, 2 hours: when cold, pour a pint of Custard over them. Round the edge of the Biskuit, put Apricots, or Raspberries, Sweetmeats. Whisk up a Gill of not very thick cream, & fill the glass up with it.

Fish Pudding.

Miss E. Read.

Take 1 lb & 1/2 of Cod, or any other firm Fish, & scrape it from the bone, then put it into a stew Pan, with 1/4 lb of butter: stew it over the fire till enough, then put it into a mortar, & beat it very fine, with the Crumb of a French Roll, ready steeped in boiling milk: put into it 3 or 4 Mushrooms, a little Mace, pepper, Nutmeg, Salt, & 4 Eggs well beaten. Stir them all together. Butter 1/2 lb.

Bath Buns.

Marry.

6 ozs of butter, 8 D^s of Sugar, 6 Eggs, to 1 lb & 3/4 of flour.

To make Orange Marmalade. uncooked.

Take as many Seville Oranges, as you think proper. Take the same weight of lump sugar, clarify it to be in readiness. Grate the yellow rind of the Oranges, then with sharp Knife cut the Skin just through into 4 quarters. Strip off the Skin from the inside, & with a sharp Knife, shave off the white inside of the rind, throw that away & cut the other part into very fine Chips, when they are all chipt put them on the fire with as much cold water, as will cover them: let them boil till quite tender: In the meantime, extract the juice through a sieve, to keep back the seeds, then throw the chips into a sieve to drain. Set on the sugar, & when it boils, put in the juice & chips, & when it has boiled about 10 minutes, put in the grating, & let them all boil very quick, till it is a Jelly, observing the same rules, to know when ready, as for Jam. Observe, in making Jam & Marmalades, you should keep stirring it all over the bottom, or it will set to the bottom of the pan, & spoil the color,

Hot it, as you do other Jams.

To melt Butter. D. Hunter.

Put $\frac{1}{4}$ lb of butter, into a plated saucepan, with 3 tea-spoonfuls of cream, shake the pan, over a clear fire, till the butter is completely melted. Take care to shake it only one way, & be careful, not to put the saucepan upon the fire.

Crump Soufflet. W. Cropley.

When you are going to bake it, add ^{to the ingredients} the yolks of 5 eggs, the whites must be very well whisked, before they are put in.

A Hen's Nest. very pretty. Miss D. H.

Put a large Tea-cup in a basin, round, fill the outside with clear stiff Jelly, (Crump) when cold, turn it out, & have in readiness, some small Blarney Eggs. Lay shreds of preserved Lemon in the hollow, then put the eggs in, wh. are Blarney, melted in egg-shed cups, or a common egg shed. the clay before.

a pint of cream, boiled with a little cinnamon in it, then pour it into a basin till cool, take the yolks of 4 eggs, beat well, sweeten with fine sugar, mix these with the cream & set it over a slow fire, stir it, till it begins to thicken, then pour it into a basin, & stir it till cool.

So

Orange Pops.

Squeeze the juice of 2 Seville Oranges, & 1 lemon, into a basin, that will hold a quart, sweeten it like a Syrup. Boil a pint of cream with some Orange peel cut thin. When cold, strain it through a sieve into a basin of juice. Hold up: the sieve a good height from the basin. It should stand 2 days before it is used.

To make Currant Jelly.

So

Put the currants into a deep jar, tie a paper over it & put it in a pan of boiling water upon the stove, untill they are quite soft. Then put them through a sieve, till the juice is clear, boil it $\frac{1}{4}$ of an hour. Then add $\frac{3}{4}$ lb of sugar to every pint: boil about 10 minutes. Strain it, & put it into Pots.

So

Rule-Lake.

8 ozs of ground Rice, 4 ozs of Flour, & Eggs, 1 lb of powdered loaf sugar, the yolks, & sugar beat together.

To make Minced Pies.

Miss E. Read.

Pudding must boil for 6 hours at least.

Plain Tea Cakes.

1 lb of Flour, into which rub 2 ozs of Butter
1 Egg, & a little yeast. a little Sugar mixed with milk; Let them stand near the fire, upon the tin, for $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour, before you bake them.

Dry Biscuits. Very good.

1 lb of Flour, 2 ozs of Butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of acid Milk mix them rather warm, work the paste for ~~10~~ 15 minutes, Roll them as thin as possible, then bake them in a slow oven.

A Plum Cake. Miss D. Read.

1 lb & $\frac{1}{2}$ of Butter, sugar, & flour, 2 lb of currants, 3 Eggs, a small quantity of candied Lemon, &
Orange Peel, & Almonds, & a glass of Brandy.
Cream the butter in an earthen pan, the yolks & whites of the Eggs to be beaten together, till they appear very light:

23
Then put in the butter, & keep beating it all the time. Then add the sugar & curraints & Brandy alternately, & lastly the Flour.
Butter some paper, & line the mould. You intend to bake it in.

Mrs. P. M.

Transparent Gingerbread

Take equal quantities of Mace, butter, sugar & Flour, melt the butter, & mix it well with the Mace & sugar. Then put in the Flour & beat it altogether for a few minutes.
Add cinnamon & lemon peel & ginger. Bake it in a slow oven.

Filberts

1 lb. of Almonds beaten very fine
 & 1 lb. of sifted sugar, & Yolks of Eggs
 & a little essence of Lemon, or grated Lemon Peel.

Chop 1 lb & 1/2 of Pork, fat & lean, 1 lb of Seal or other white meat, 3/4 lb of Beef Suet. Shape the Suet into a penny roll, pass in water, mix all these ingredients in a mortar with salt, pepper, spice, a leaf of Sage, one onion, & 2 or 3 shallots minced small.

When wanted, mix them with an egg, & be particular always to fry them in boiling lard, & stud them up very hot.

Black Puddings. Mrs B. Cooke. 1800.

Mix 2 quarts of Blood, 1 pint of cream, 1 lb of bread finely grated, eight eggs well beaten, some sweet herbs, a little sweet Marjoram, winter Savory, 4 or 5 shallots, finely chopped. Thyme, Parsley, Pepper & salt.
Mix them all well together, then cut & sear lard into six square pieces & mix in as much as you think will be sufficient.
Be very careful to clean off skins well & do not fill them too full, as they will burst in the boiling.

Take a little Apricot Marmalade, bruise it into a basin with a pint of good Cream, sweeten it to yr taste, then whisk it a while, & add $\frac{3}{4}$ of an oz of Single's dissolved in a little water: Put it to the Cream, when it is almost cold, then whisk it till it is quite thick; then put a little into yr mould, & put a few whole Apricots at the sides, & bottom of yr mould to show through the Cream, when it is turned out. Let it stand all night. Minours will do as well.

Wm. Maxwell.
